

MyPath Newsletter #3

September 2023

Dear readers,

We've come a long way since the inception of the MyPath Project! As we inch closer to our final conference, we wanted to take a moment to reflect on our journey and share exciting updates about what's next.

Our Achievements So Far:

1. Partnerships Across Borders
We've successfully collaborated with partners from GE, AU, BG, and PT, fostering a truly international spirit.
2. Training Kit Development
With valuable feedback from our community, our Training Kit has been refined, focusing on equipping migrant women with the necessary skills and knowledge.
3. Mentoring Success Stories
Personalized guidance has been a game-changer. We've witnessed transformative journeys, with migrant women finding their foothold in new environments.
4. Breaking Cultural Barriers
Through workshops and interactions, we've built bridges, understanding cultural nuances and ensuring a smooth integration process.

Mark Your Calendars!

Final Conference of the MyPath Project

Date: 20th September 2023

Location: QBS Gewerkstatt gGmbH, Schleipweg 20, 44805 Bochum

Email: Contact us to confirm your participation info@gewerkstatt.de, or weinblat@gewerkstatt.de

Time: 14:00-17:00

Highlights:

- Project overview and milestones.
- In-depth look at the Training Kit and its local testings.
- Engaging discussions on mentoring, including success stories from partnering countries.
- Premiere screening of inspirational role model videos
- Interactive workshop on bridging cultural gaps and much more!

In Reflection

Every step of this project has been about more than just milestones; it's been about changing lives. As we prepare to share our journey with you, we remain committed to our goal: inclusion and empowerment of well and/or higher qualified migrant women in the labor market.

See you on the 20th!